Lake County Attorneys and Frank and Pauly's come together for United Way of Lake County

February 2, 2012 – Mentor, OH – Lake County attorneys will host their fellow colleagues at the new Frank and Pauly's restaurant on Tuesday, February 28, with proceeds benefiting United Way of Lake County.

All Lake County attorneys are invited to attend. The cost is $50 per person, and the menu promises to showcase some of the new restaurant's award-winning pasta dishes and appetizers.

This is the second year that attorneys have rallied together to support United Way of Lake County with this style of fundraiser. Manu Raj, from Rieth, Antonelli & Raj, LPA, and Jodi Tomaszewski from Dworken & Bernstein, Co., LPA, are chairing United Way's attorney division this year.

"I was truly amazed at the wide range of community programs that benefited from the money raised at last year's event. I am proud to be associated with an organization that makes a difference in so many people's lives," said Tomaszewski. "It's exciting to bring the attorneys together for a cause that does so much good in Lake County and captures the true spirit of giving," said Raj.

The event will be a first for the newest restaurant to hit Mentor. Located at 9470 Mentor Avenue in "The Sawyer House," Frank and Pauly's certainly is not a new name to Greater Cleveland. "When good people come together for a cause, everyone wins," said Dennis Koury, Chief Executive Officer of Frank and Pauly's.
